Ideas to Start With

This quick checklist holds suggestions for how you can bless your missionary.

- Write an email or letter introducing yourself and your family. Include a picture and some fun facts!
- Send a birthday card or email.
- Make a handmade Christmas card or ornament and mail it with a small gift in time for Christmas.
- Find out what dates the missionary might be in town and arrange to take them out to breakfast or lunch.
- Did you learn something cool from the Bible that encouraged you? Email your missionary and describe your experience to encourage them.
- Send a small care package with things the missionary might not be able to get locally.
- Ask to receive the missionary's newsletter or email updates. When you read them, send a quick email to let them know what was your favorite part or story.
- Start a dialogue with the missionary about how they may feel disconnected, then choose to do something about it.
- Send your missionary a surprise check. Allow God to use you to meet their needs.
- Pray for your missionary during family meal times.

Prayer Ideas

Pray for your missionary! Apart from specific prayer requests that they share in their newsletters, you can also pray for these general areas:

- Pray for their personal spiritual growth. Pray for rich times in God's word and a strong sense of God's presence in their lives. Pray that God will stretch them and sanctify them.
- Pray for their families, marriages, and relationships. Pray for missionaries whose families may not be Christians yet. Pray for marriages to be protected and for them to thrive. Pray for children to grow up to love God.
- Pray for their team or for encouraging relationships. Pray that they will feel supported and learn more how to be part of the body of Christ.
- Pray for their effectiveness in ministry. Pray against opposition. Pray that God will bless and expand their ministry.
- Pray for the people they are working with to have their eyes opened to the truth. Pray that God's spirit will move among the people and call them to himself.
- Pray for their needs to be met: spiritual needs, physical needs, emotional needs. Pray that God will act as their provider.
